BJP-NCP Govt. sworn-in in Maharashtra

Unprecedented political surgical strike by BJP

- BJP's Devendra Fadnavis sworn-in as Maharashtra Chief Minister; NCP's Ajit Pawar as Deputy CM at 8.05 this morning
- President's Rule revoked at 5.47 am today to facilitate oath-taking

Maharashtra Governor Bhagat Singh Koshyari (centre) greeting newly sworn-in Chief Minister of Maharashtra Devendra Fadnavis and Deputy CM Ajit Pawar in Mumbai this morning.

Mumbai, Nov. 23 (UNI&Agencies)- In an overnight coup, the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) turned its tables on rivals with a faction of Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) breaking away under Sharad Pawar's nephew Ajit Pawar and forming Government under the leadership of Devendra Fadnavis in the wee hours of this morning.

The development has brought a major twist in the Maharashtra saga as a day earlier it was senior Pawar, who announced that the new Maharashtra Government would be led by Shiv Sena Chief Uddhav Thackeray. Fadnavis was sworn-in as the Chief Minister for the second time and NCP's Ajit Pawar as his Deputy in the early morning political surgical strike that stunned the Shiv Sena and the Congress.

"I would like to express my gratitude to NCP's Ajit Pawar ji, he took this decision to give a stable Government to Maharashtra and come together with BJP. Some other leaders also came with us and we staked claim to form the Government," Fadnavis was quoted as saying.

Ajit, nephew of Sharad Pawar, said: "I took this decision as the discussions of the alliance of the three parties — Congress, NCP and Shiv Sena — was not ending. There was a need to give a stable Government in Maharashtra."

Hullabaloo over security

What is secure and what is insecure about people and places in the land can be debated both formally and informally, subjectively and objectively, knowledgeably and ignorantly, emotionally and calmly depending on whether the discussants have stakes with the related issues. A breed of Indians have emerged since not too long past getting the benefit of high level security to their persona costing God-knows-how-many crores of rupees drawn from the treasury. To the uninformed sections of society, this breed being protected at public cost are all people's representatives, attaining that distinction through means that are too well-known even to those who are literate enough to read whatever appears in print in the dailies. The other kind who don't contest in polls and thus don't represent people in legislature but command wealth in amounts that can be cause for envy also seek security with the difference that public funds are not involved to secure them physically. The question that begs for an answer is: Are the law-makers, representing the land's people feeling insecure and why do they have to distinguish themselves from the people whom they represent?

Attacking an elected member of one or the other legislative body in the land brutally with intent to kill and assassinating a person with high societal rating in public life, including those holding high office such as the land's Prime Minister are in different classes. The major factor of distinguishing them is that in days past the killer used to be fed hashish, a narcotic and in our times the hireling gets supari, money as fee for the heinous act.

The country's mass of nearly 1.4 trillion population is represented by nearly 800 in its highest law-making body namely the Parliament, about 9,000 in the legislatures of 36 States and Union Territories and a virtual army in Urban Local Bodies, Town Municipalities and Gram Panchayats. One cannot be faulted to raise the point of preferential protection to this elected tribe over that of aam aadmi, who is as vulnerable in the open space as insects battling against measures to get rid of them. The circumstances in which the life of the virtual man-in-the-street hangs by a thread are not difficult to visualise. Girls marrying against the diktats of Khap Panchayats, persons questioning those found spitting/littering/answering nature's call in the street-side, those seeking redemption of noise pollution caused during celebrations, people moving in public transport and so on are all vulnerable in the matter of their safety to life.

In short, while the Ministers, MPs, MLAs, GP members have ensured their security at huge public cost, the rest of the land's diaspora have to fend for themselves. In their case, insecurity translates to either getting maimed at the hands of criminals or death, a brazen mockery of democracy.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

It is a generally accepted fact that the quality of research in Indian Universities has drastically fallen over the years. When we probe into the possible factors behind this pathetic state, we come across many reasons namely — incompatibility between the researcher and the guide, poor administrative guidelines, lack of financial support and more. I would argue that the dominant factor for this poor state of research doesn't lie outside the research scholar, but within himself. It is the lack of awareness of the seriousness involved in the engaged research work. Research is undertaken due to motivation to attain a Ph.D degree as it is a mandatory qualification for the promotion of teachers at tertiary and post-graduate levels. As a result, once the degree is awarded, the 'research' ends there. — Jyothi in Deccan Herald

Firm to hire someone to smoke weed for $3,000 a month

New York: Get paid to take smoke large amounts of weed. you won't be sent anywhere far flung to enjoy your joints. That will be done from your own home, presumably – and the company hiring specifies that the person they choose will have to live somewhere the drug is legal.

If you're still keen, however, the advert from AmericanMarijuana.org says: 'We're looking for someone to review a wide variety of cannabis products to give our readers an honest and reliable insights on various cannabis products.

Whoever gets the gig will be paid up to $3,000 monthly or $36,000 yearly 'depending on their experience and their capabilities'.

'Popeye' bodybuilder has 3lbs of dead muscle removed

Moscow: A former soldier who earned the nickname 'Popeye' after injecting his arms with jelly to create bulging biceps has had to undergo surgery to save his life.

Kirill Tereshin, 23, was warned he could die or need to have both his arms amputated because of the artificial biceps he had created.

Surgeons at First Moscow State Medical University in the Russian capital said they had removed 3lb of dead muscle and three litres of petroleum jelly that had formed into a solid lump.

Lead surgeon Dmitry Melnikov said his team was only a quarter of the way through the huge operation. It will take at least three more surgeries for all of the Vaseline-like jelly to be removed from Kirill's arms, Dr. Melnikov said.

Kirill has been told he will have arm movement but the muscles in his arms will be diminished.

Can chocolate help calm my cough?

Researchers at London's imperial college have learned that Theobromine, an alkaloid found in cocoa, is more effective at treating cough than codeine, a key ingredient in cough medicines. Improvement came within two days. Eat 1 or 2 ounces of dark chocolate daily, at least 70% cacao.

Really...?

- Why does your voice change when you inhale helium?: Air has to travel from the lungs, through the larynx, and make changes to the vocal cords and vocal tract to produce sound. To understand the effect of helium on your voice, you must first learn how sound works. When we speak, air goes up from our lungs and passes through the larynx. That is where it comes into contact with our vocal cords. Also known as "vocal folds," this area has double infoldings of tissue and mucous membranes that are stretched across the larynx. When air hits the underside, the vocal cords vibrate. This vibration excites the molecules of air present in the vocal tract and creates resonant frequencies.

Use of high-beam lights
attributed to lack of streetlights

Sir,

This refers to Dr. S.V.N. Vijayendra's write-up in connection with the accident at RTO Circle. I whole-heartedly agree with him that most of the vehicle drivers are misusing the high-beam lights within city limits and flouting traffic rules.

But after dusk, most of the roads in Mysuru do not have streetlights and the ones that have lights, are shrouded by tree branches. Due to this major problem, motorists are forced to use high-beam lights and this creates most of the accidents post-dusk. Of course, this also happens due to lack of education.

If the authorities concerned install streetlights on all the roads and trim the tree branches, motorists will not be inclined to use high-beam lights.

Bandipur night travel ban

Wayanad Action Panel miffed as Centre favours routes via Kodagu

Wayanad, Nov. 23- The Kerala Government has been blamed for oversight as the Union Ministry of Road Transport and Highways has supported an alternative path as a solution to the ongoing night travel ban through a stretch of the National Highway (NH) 766 passing through Bandipur tiger reserve.

The National Highway and Railway Action Committee, based in Wayanad, is upset after the Ministry in an affidavit filed with the Supreme Court favoured an alternative road via Kutta and Gonikoppal in Kodagu district as a way out of the travel problems faced by the residents of Wayanad district in Kerala.

The Ministry filed the affidavit saying that State Highway-90 (Hunsur-Talacauvery) and State Highway-89 (Madikeri-Kutta) in Karnataka and Thalassery-Bavali (district road) and Kattikkulam-Tholpetty (district road) in Kerala can be developed as alternatives. A joint committee of experts comprising officials of Ministry of Environment and Forests and National Tiger Conservation Authority suggested these routes.

The Ministry has put the onus on the State Governments of Karnataka and Kerala to develop the State Highways and district roads so that the National Highway running inside the Tiger Reserve is left undisturbed.

The Apex Court had in an earlier hearing given the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate four weeks to file an affidavit. The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways was also given an opportunity for the same.

Though interior roads in Karnataka (Hunsur-Talacauvery and Madikeri-Kutta) have already been developed as State Highways with two lanes, Kerala is yet to develop the district roads Thalassery-Bavali and Kattikkulam-Tholpetty as State Highways with two lanes, the Centre said.

The Bench of Justices R.F. Nariman and S. Ravindra Bhat gave six weeks' time to all the parties including Kerala and Karnataka to respond to the proposal by the Centre.

Following the affidavit, the office-bearers of the Action Committee alleged that the Kerala Government did not take up the matter effectively with the Central Government. Moreover, Kerala Government neither launched efforts to compel the Union Environment Ministry to set up a panel to study the issue as the Ministry had earlier promised nor held talks with Karnataka to find a practical solution, the Committee claimed.

It is also pointed out that major lapses on the part of Kerala Government included its failure to present the resolution passed by the Assembly on the issue before the Apex Court and argue against the alternate route. Kerala also did not try to convince the Court of the need to open NH 766 round-the-clock. A meeting of the Action Committee urged the State Government to take up the case earnestly.

Wayanad had recently witnessed a civil campaign against the ban on night traffic along the NH stretch passing through forests in a bid to protect animals. People here are also concerned about the plans to close day traffic also along the route. They have been facing untold misery over the last decade with the curbs on traffic movement at night.

MP appeals for extension of Udyan Express to Mysuru

Mysuru, Nov.23- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha has appealed Union Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi to extend the Bengaluru-Mumbai-Bengaluru Udyan Express train to Mysuru.

In a memorandum submitted to the Union Minister, Simha stressed on the need for extending the Express train to Mysuru in the interest of tourists, devotees visiting Mantralaya and other general travellers.

The Udyan Express from Bengaluru will pass through Guntakal, Mantralya, Raichur, Kalaburagi, Solapur and Pune to reach Mumbai and devotees travelling to Mantralaya from Mysuru will be hugely benefitted by this train. As such, the Udyan Express too should be extended to Mysuru just as Bengaluru-Kacheguda and Bengaluru-Kochuveli trains were extended to Mysuru recently, the memorandum said.

Meanwhile, Suresh Angadi has ordered addition of four more bogies to Bengaluru-Mysuru MEMU Daily (except Sunday)train that leaves KSR Bengaluru Railway Station for Mysuru at 5.20 pm, taking into consideration the passenger rush.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha handing over the memorandum to Union Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi.

The Union Minister's order comes after Pratap Simha's appeal for addition of more bogies as there is heavy rush of passengers for this evening train from Bengaluru to Mysuru.

Now, you can have voter ID in colour

Smart voter ID card will have a host of new features, barcodes and safety systems

Bengaluru, Nov. 23 (OSR)- The era of black and white voter identity cards, which over the years had evolved with the democracy and became synonymous with the electoral process, has paved way for coloured and more authentic-looking Elector Photo Identity Cards, popularly known as EPIC.

The new-look EPIC will not only have the latest coloured photograph of the voter, but will also have a host of new features, which will lend a unique touch to it. It will have many safety features.

The Election Commission of India has decided to revamp the voter identity cards across the country to bring in uniformity and the exercise in Karnataka has commenced. Chief Electoral Officer for Karnataka Sanjiv Kumar said, "Citizens who have turned 18 and applied (to enrol themselves in the electoral list), will receive their cards on January 25, 2020."

FATHER'S NAME : KISHAN DEV THAKUR

DATE OF BIRTH/AGE : 15/02/1985

Bar codes for enhanced security

"The EPIC would be made using plastic material, and will be multi-layered. It will also have the hologram of the Election Commission embossed, and will also be having a distinct barcode for each Elector Photo Identity Card."

The Election Commission plans to further link the bar-coded voter ID card with the list having the relevant details of the voters (ranging from their names, addresses, date of birth among others). These details of the voters could then be retrieved for future purpose using barcode readers (commonly used in shopping malls to list the price of items at the billing counter).

"The Election Commission of India has fixed the cost of this ID card at Rs. 30, but we are trying to make it as cheaper as possible," he said and added that as soon as the Form-6, which pertains to registration of a new voter is approved, the digital signature of the electoral registration officer would soon appear on the EPIC.

Waiting period

He said, "Citizens who already have a black and white card and want to get a new voter ID card can expect to see the new card within a minimum of 15 days (statutory period). The time frame can also exceed that limit depending on the case."

For example, if a citizen applies for the card through a Citizens' Service Centre (CSC), the application will go to an Electoral Registration Officer (ERO) for processing, and once the booth-level officer completes a spot check, the application is approved. The CSC will then intimate the applicant when to collect the ID.

An Electoral Registration Officer (ERO) said, "If you want a colour photograph, you need to either upload your photo through the National Voter's Service Portal and complete the other formalities or go to a CSC with a photograph and other documents. The representative at the CSC will scan the photograph and upload the application."

Those who have applied through the CSC can collect their card from that centre and those who've applied online can collect it from the ERO's office.

How to apply

To receive a new card, a verification and authentication process must be completed. Citizens can complete the formalities by applying through the following avenues: 'Voter' helpline mobile app, the National Voter's Service Portal, by visiting the Citizens Service Centres, by visiting the voter facilitation centre at the Electoral Registration Officer's Office or at Bapuji Seva Kendras located in Gram Panchayat Offices. To complete the formalities, documents prescribed by the Election Commission must be either uploaded online or brought to the relevant locations.

From Roar to ... Purr

This morning the BJP pulled off a coup in Maharashtra. Many who watched the news on TV this morning were left wondering if it was fake news. The headlines read "BJP-NCP form Government in Maharashtra." Even more shocking, they had already sworn-in BJP's Devendra Fadnavis as Chief Minister (CM) and Nationalist Congress Party's (NCP) Ajit Pawar as Deputy Chief Minister (Dy.CM) ! So unbelievable was this news that even the Congress Spokesperson Abhishek Singhvi tweeted saying, "Thought it was fake news. #pawarji tussi grt ho! Amazing if true, still not sure."

Yes, Indian politics with its unthinkable permutations, combinations and twists can be embarrassing for a democracy.

Now, speaking of embarrassment, the most embarrassed person today in the nation has to be the Chief of NCP's Mumbai unit, Nawab Malik.

Exactly a week ago, Malik had mocked Amit Shah in a tweet saying, "At last, the so-called Chanakya of Indian politics has been defeated by Sharad Pawar sahab." Guess it is time to delete that tweet now Malik sahab, because Amit Shah has had the last laugh. Even more embarrassing is the fact that it was Malik's own party that brought BJP to power.

Now, the NCP claims it was Sharad Pawar's nephew Ajit Pawar, who betrayed his uncle and poached 29 MLAs in order to support BJP. If anyone knows Sharad Pawar, who is a master weaver of Chakravyuhas, this "Pawar betrays Pawar for Power" story just might be an eyewash. Because, while BJP wants to be in Power, the Pawar family wants to stay out of Jail. They have enough cases against them ranging from irrigation scam to Maharashtra Co-operative Bank scam.

We remember when Sharad Pawar received an Enforcement Directorate (ED) notice relating to the Maharashtra Co-operative Bank scam, he went to its office the very next day even though it was not a summons. When asked why he did this, he said as a Maratha he would not bow to the 'Tanashahi' (autocracy) of Delhi.

Well, now the NCP may not have bowed to 'Tanashahi' of Delhi, but after what has happened to former Union Minister P. Chidambaram, we guess they don't mind being cajoled by Delhi.

And cajoled how? On Monday, Prime Minister Modi praises Sharad Pawar in the Parliament, and for what? For showing discipline during Parliamentary proceedings! Then a day later, on Wednesday, Pawar and the Prime Minister meet, oh no! Not to discuss politics, but to ostensibly discuss "farmer distress" in Maharashtra. Two days later, BJP forms a Government in Maharashtra. Wah! Bhai Wah!

It is indeed intriguing that BJP has made Ajit Pawar the Dy.CM, a man who, according to the Anti Corruption Bureau, is involved in the Rs.70,000 crore irrigation scam. A man who once mocked a farmer complaining about lack of water saying, "Do you want me to piss and fill your dam?"

It makes us wonder if the meeting to discuss "farmer distress" was about how to get water out of Ajit Pawar, or how to get Ajit Pawar out of hot water.

Unholy alliances are part of the Indian political landscape for a long time now. Many may remember how the Shiv Sena, who just a few days ago reminded the BJP that they supported Hinduvtava before BJP was born, joined hands with the Muslim League in the Mumbai Mayoral elections in the 1970s. More recently we have the example of BJP-PDP alliance in Kashmir. Power is the end game, means don't matter.

Now, where does this leave the Tiger of Maharashtra, the Shiv Sena? Well, for now, the tiger of Maharashtra which was roaring till last night is left meowing like an injured pussy cat.

Just last night, Shiv Sena leaders claimed in grand fashion that Sena is full of firsts this year — First time a Thackeray family member, Adithya Thackeray had stood for election. And soon in a first, another Thackeray, Uddhav Thackeray would be sworn-in as Chief Minister. It was said that unlike earlier, the Thackerays will not be 'remote control' but in actual control. But alas.

As of this morning, the roar of the tiger has mellowed to a meow as the Shiv Sena has been cut to size. Cut to size by their own leaders' arrogance, fickleness and lack of political prudence. All terrible political traits to have when you have a political fox like Pawar in your backyard.

In short, the fox has outwitted the tiger. And in doing so, it has not only brought life back to the party but kept Sena out of power and their own leaders out of Jail.

While BJP comes back to power in Maharashtra, one has to wonder how it will affect the by-elections in Karnataka. Is Kumaranna hoping for a Christmas gift if BJP falls short?

For now, Sharad Pawar, taking a swipe at Prime Minister Narendra Modi's Kedarnath visit after the Lok Sabha elections had said, "I have never seen that after elections, those who shoulder the country's responsibility leave Delhi and go to the Himalayas" and added saying "There is 'nautanki' in politics also." Guess he or his nephew has proved it true.

But if anyone thinks the drama in Maharashtra is over after last night's midnight masala and this morning's climax, all that one can say is...Picture Abhi Baki Hai. Part 2 — Supreme Court and anti-defection drama.

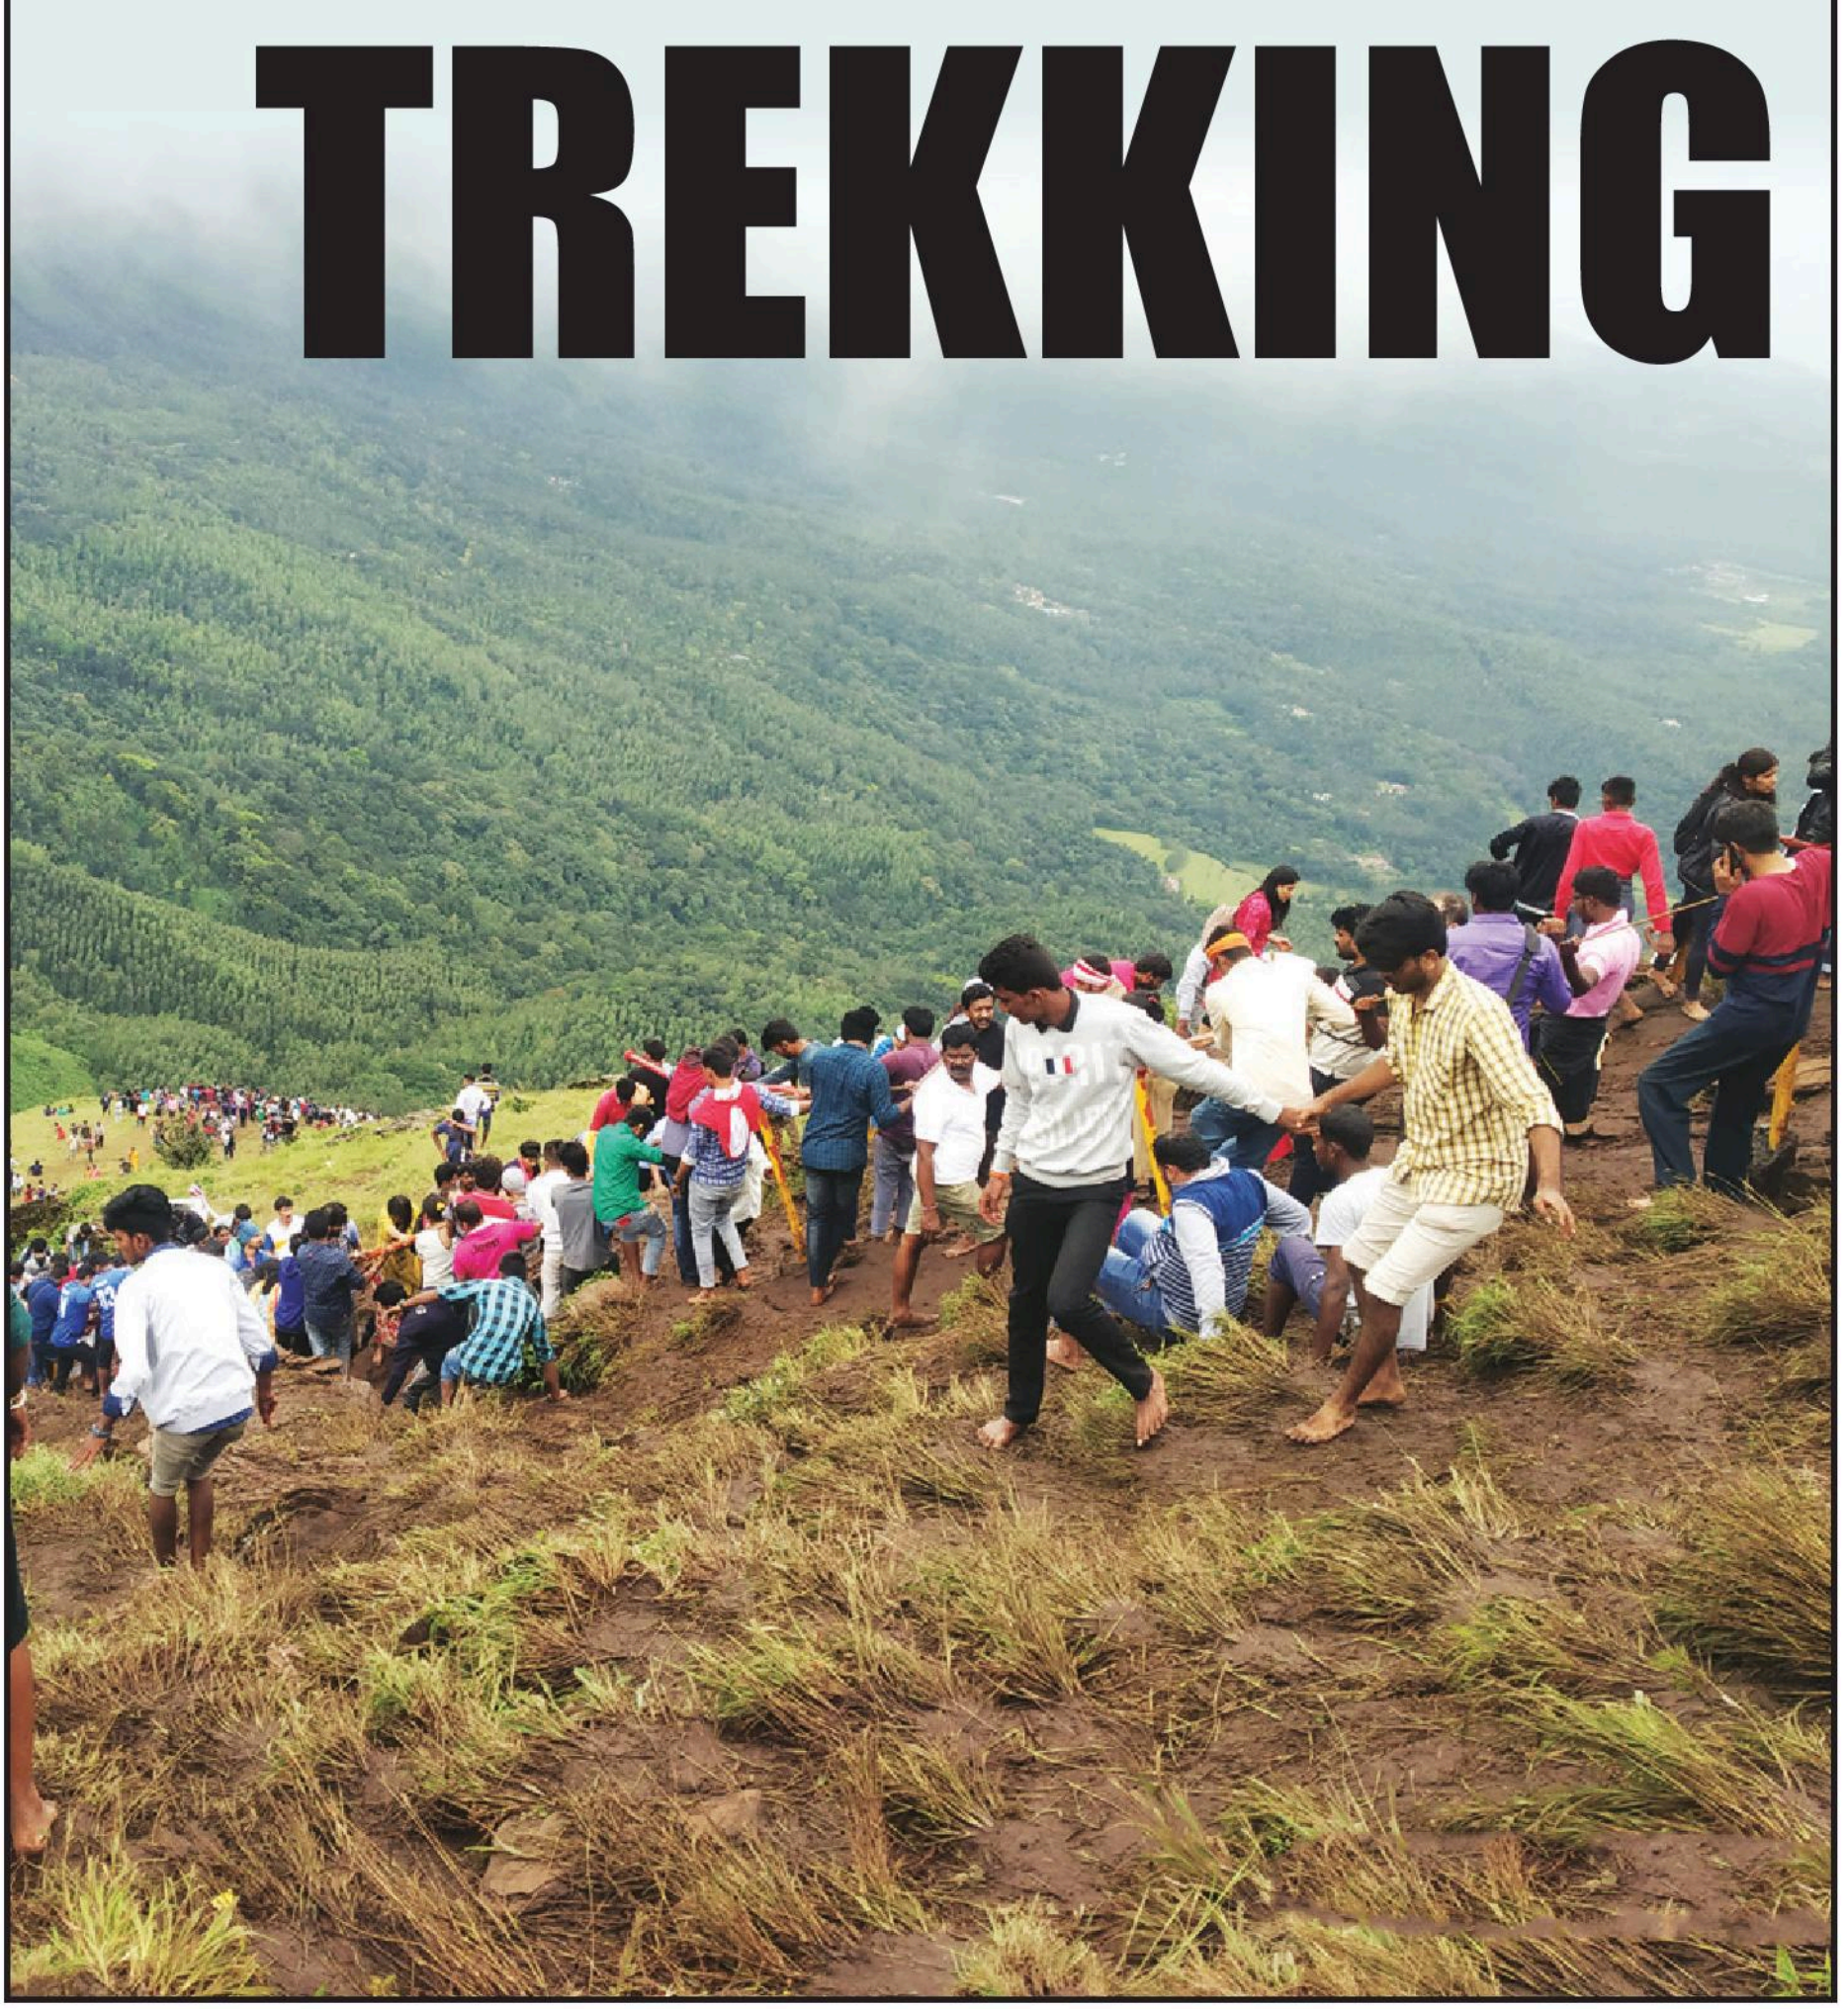
SPIRITUAL TREKKING



STAR OF MYSORE Saturday 23rd November 2019 Weekend STAR Supplement Page - 11

Where every devotee turns a trekker

The Deviramma Temple nestled amidst Western Ghats in Chikkamagaluru District. Wooden logs are piled up near the temple structure to be taken atop the Hill for a bonfire to be lit.

By B.N. Ramya, Trekker

Amidst the montage of people, there exists a divine circuit of hundreds of pilgrims who dedicate their entire life to a journey to wash away their sins and seek the blessings from the deity whom they worship. India is a holy land which unites people as they go for long treks across the country which is dotted with pilgrimage sites of various religions.

Over the years, spiritual treks have gained popularity which cover the length and breadth of the country beginning from Amarnath in Kashmir to Tawang Monastery in Arunachal Pradesh and many more. Pilgrimage is act of devotion. In many religions, these sacred treks are prescribed, even considered a must in one's lifetime, and followers from all of world's major faiths make holy pilgrimages.

Pilgrimage trek can be a meaningful, moving experience in which trekkers can enrich their understanding of a local culture and broaden their understanding of the wide range of spiritual beliefs.

High mountains offer one the best place of tranquillity and meditation. Smaller hills can also mesmerise one and tempt to go for spiritual trekking to a nearby hill to relax and enjoy the comforts of peace of mind and body.

One rather unknown spiritual trekking destination that leads an individual to a mountain that is 3,000 ft. above sea level is Deviramma Betta in the scenic Chikkamagaluru district. Here, a trekker traverses through a rocky and steep path on one particular day of the year — the Deepavali Day. Nobody ventures here during the rest of the year. So, what pulls devotees/ trekker to Deviramma Betta?

When Goddess Chamundeshwari calmed down from her 'Raudraavataara' atop Hill

Mysuru got its name from Mahishasura, the demon king who was killed by Mahishasura Mardhini Chamundeshwari, the presiding deity of Mysuru. While legends and spiritual texts describe how Goddess Chamundeshwari in her "Raudraavataara" defeated and killed the demon king (the event is celebrated as Navaratri or Dasara as victory of good over evil), not many know what happened after the killing.

Legend says that after killing Mahishasura, Goddess Chamundeshwari, to calm down her anger, went away from the reach of everyone to make sure that nobody was destroyed by her anger and stayed put atop a hill in Chikkamagaluru giving it the name Deviramma Betta (Deviramma, incarnation of Goddess Chamundeshwari).

Like Dasara pulls a large crowd towards Mysuru, Deepavali has been attracting over a lakh devotees every year towards Chikkamagaluru for the annual Deepotsava at Giri Deviramma Temple (Deviramma Temple atop the Hill) in Bindiga Mallenahalli village.

The speciality of the festival here is that the Hill Temple is visited only once a year on the first day of Deepavali, the Naraka Chaturdashi Day. However, there is another Deviramma Temple at the foothill that is open throughout the year. It is believed Deviramma or Goddess Chamundeshwari will be on top of the hill for only one day and she will be at the temple in the village during the rest of the days throughout the year.

People in the town celebrate Deepavali by bursting crackers and lighting lamps at their houses only after the light is lit atop the hill. Devotees from across the State and neighbouring States visit the hill temple by trekking barefoot amidst greenery to get the blessings of Goddess Deviramma. Many devotees start climbing the hill in the middle of the night to avoid rush and come down before Sun turns hot. As per practice, devotees fast during the trek as they consider this feat as holy.

The land of coffee, which is a trekker's paradise with its serenity, soothed the anger of the Goddess and this is a firm belief among devotees. The Goddess, after gaining her composure, to facilitate darshan for devotees, came down the hill and sat down at the foothill temple, says legends.

The Temple atop the hill has no doors or walls but people voluntarily don't venture to the place on other days. On Naraka Chaturdashi day, wooden pieces/ logs are carried by the devotees on top of the hill and later during the evening, at around 7 pm, they are used to light a huge fire.

The temple below the hill and the light that glows atop (circled).

With the number of devotees increasing each year and difficulty in climbing the hill, in order to avoid the trouble caused to other devotees while carrying logs, instead of devotees, villagers themselves carry the logs on top of the hill early in the morning for the bonfire. However, devotees can carry camphor or incense sticks or tiny wooden pieces for the same.

After darshan at the temple, devotees head towards the foothill temple and wait to see the bonfire being lit atop the hill. In the town, people perform arathi facing the hill and then begin Deepavali celebrations.

On the Amavasya day that follows Naraka Chaturdashi, the doors/ curtains of the foothill temple which is closed after the morning puja will open on its own, signalling that the Goddess has returned from the hilltop to the foothill temple. This is a faith that is still prevalent.

Fear of landslips keeps devotees away

Since decades, Giri Deviramma Temple has been attracting nearly lakh devotees every year on Naraka Chaturdashi Day. However, this year continuous rains rendered the already steep terrain a more risky place with loose soil and a slippery path. Hence devotees visited the hill shrine only after 4 am instead of walking in the night. In an advisory issued on Oct.25, 2019, Chikkamagaluru Deputy Commissioner Bagadi Gautam said that there could be chances of landslips. Probably this notice and other videos uploaded on social media resulted in the number of devotees being reduced to half this year.

Deepavali at Mysore Palace

During the rule of Mysore Wadiyars, Deepavali celebrations at Mysore Palace used to begin after the light is lit atop Deviramma Betta. According to villagers and trekkers, Mysore Wadiyars used to send ghee, oil and other puja-related materials (seve) to the hill temple for the rituals. However, when Star of Mysore contacted the member of erstwhile royal family, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, she said that she has no idea about Wadiyars sending puja materials to the Deviramma Temple.

HOW TO REACH THERE

The Deviramma temple is located on Chandra Dhrona Hill Ranges of the Western Ghats of Chikkamagaluru taluk, nearly 30 kms from Chikkamagaluru.

The foothill temple is in Mallenahalli. It's a serene place with Mullayanagiri — the highest peak in Karnataka, Bababudangiri — the place which is famous for religious harmony with the shrine to the Sufi saint Hazrath Dada Hayat Khalandar, a pilgrimage site for both Hindus and Muslims and the Deviramma Betta in the backdrop.

One can easily reach the foothill temple by vehicle. For Deepotsava, KSRTC too deploys additional buses from Kadur, Tarikere Birur and Chikkamagaluru to Mallenahalli. However, to reach the Deviramma Betta, one has to walk around 8 kms from the foothill temple or if vehicles are allowed, one can reach till Inam Dattatreya Peetha (as vehicles are restricted during heavy traffic) and trek to reach the peak of Deviramma Betta.

Antharagange

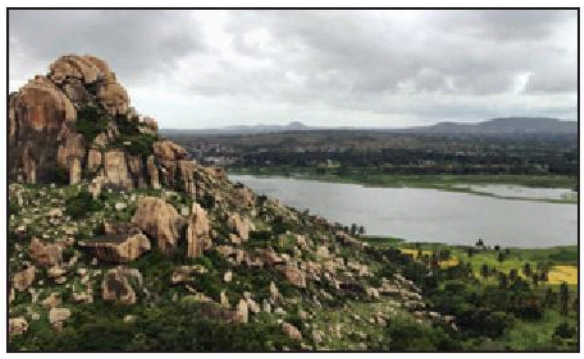
Antharagange is a great place if you are looking for a place not far from Bengaluru for some adventure of the outdoor kind. Located in Kolar, this place has a temple and unlimited stocks of boulders. It will take 90 minutes on a bike to reach the place through Old Madras Road in Bengaluru.

The temple belongs to Kashi Vishwanath which is reached after climbing over 350 steps. The highlight of this temple is the pond which gets water from perennial underground spring.

Kunti Betta

Kunti Betta is located at a distance of 7 kms from Pandavapura, 14 kms from Srirangapatna. This place Pandavapura was named after the Pandavas who had been here during their exile days.

Kunti Betta is marked by two rocky hills at an altitude of 2,882 feet. These rocky hills are surrounded by sugarcane, paddy fields and coconut trees. There is a temple with a pond at the foot of the hill which serves as a popular destination for pilgrims.

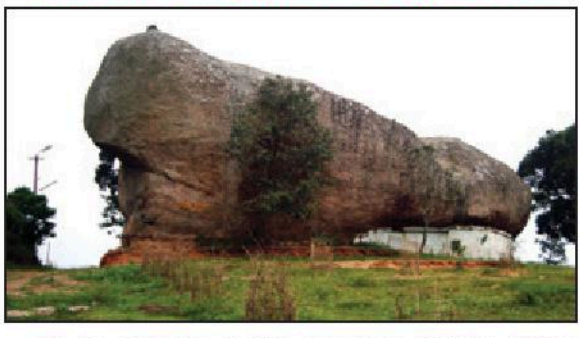


Male Mahadeshwara Betta

At a distance of 135 kms from Mysuru, 89 kms from Hogennakal, Male Mahadeshwara Betta, also known as M.M. Hills, is a sacred place situated in the eastern parts of Kollegal taluk in Chamarajanagar district. It is situated at an altitude of 3,000 feet.

Male Mahadeshwara Hills is surrounded by dense forest and is famous for Male Mahadeshwara Temple. Other shrines to visit here are Nagamale, Adi Madappa, Indi Basaveshwara, Goujala Katte Basaveshwara, Bale Kallu Basaveshwara, Tapasare, Paada Dhare, Karaiah's Boli and Kanave Basappa.

Bilikal Rangaswamy Betta



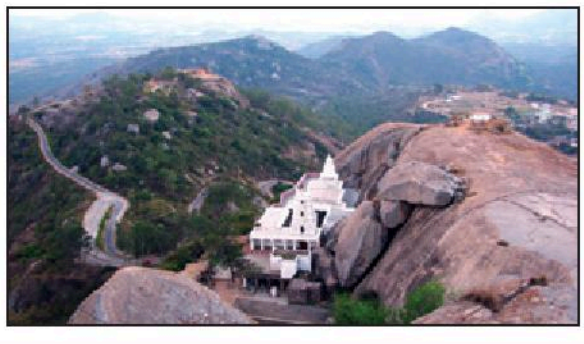
At a distance of 112 kms from Mysuru, Bilikal Rangaswamy Betta is a hill near Kanakapura town. It is also called Bilikal Betta — means white rocks. Bilikal Rangaswamy Betta lies at an elevation of 3,780 ft. There is a temple dedicated to Lord Rangaswamy at the peak of Bilikal Betta.

This temple is located underneath a huge, white coloured rock. The temple priest lives near the temple and is the only person living at the peak.

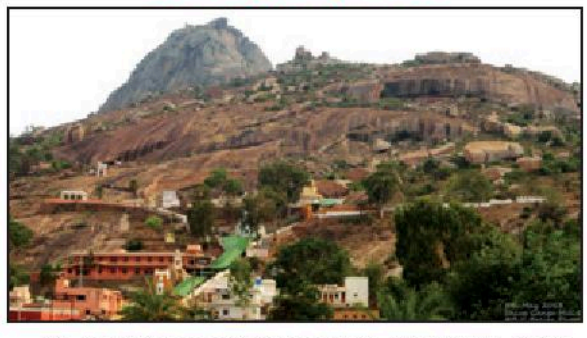
Every year, pilgrims from the surrounding area climb this hill to celebrate a festival at the Rangaswamy temple.

Devarayanadurga

Seventy-two kms from Bengaluru, Devarayanadurga is a rocky hill situated in the midst of picturesque locality at an altitude of 3,940 ft. The main attraction of Devarayanadurga is the temples of Yoga Narasimha and Bhoga Narasimha. The Bhoga Narasimha temple is located at the foothills while the Yoga Narasimha shrine is located at the top of the hill. Devarayanadurga is famous for the natural water spring called 'Namada Chilume' which is considered as the source of Jayamangali River. There are two other springs Ramathirtha and Dhanushtirtha. There is a large cave nearby with figures of Rama, Sita and Lakshmana.



Shivaganga Hill



At a distance of 50 kms from Bengaluru, Shivaganga Hill lies at an altitude of 4,599 ft and it is a good short trekking destination. There are also two Shiva temples, one very close to the foot of the hill, called Shivaganga Temple and another one at top of the hill, called Gavi Gangadhareswara Temple.

The unique feature of the hill is that it looks like a bull from the East, a Ganesha from the West, a Linga from the South and a cobra from the North. A set of well-laid steps will lead you to the top of hill where the shrine of Gavi Gangadhareswara Cave temple is situated.

All preparations in place for Hunsur by-poll: DC Abhiram G. Sankar

Mysuru, Nov.23 (SBD&DM)- With the countdown for the Dec. 5 by-poll to Hunsur assembly segment in the district having already begun,the district administration is fully geared up to ensure a free and fair poll.

Addressing a press meet at his office here yesterday, Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G.Sankar, who is also the District Electoral Officer, said that voting will take place on Dec.5 and the counting of votes will be taken up on Dec.9 at D.Devaraj Urs Government First Grade College in Hunsur.

Pointing out that there are ten candidates in the fray, Sankar said that Hunsur Assembly segment has 2,27,974 voters, including 1,14,146 men,1,12,770 women and 6 other voters.

A total of 274 polling booths have been set up in the constituency and 329 ballot units, 329 control units and 357 M3 EVM units will be used in the election. The mustering and de-mustering process will take place at D.Devaraj Urs First Grade College, he said and added that elaborate security arrangements have been made to ensure a free and fair poll.

Clarifying that the Model Code of Conduct applies to only Hunsur Assembly segment, the DC said that a total of nine checkposts covering all entry and exit roads of the constituency have been set up to check vehicles.

The checkposts are at Manuganahalli,Veeranahosahalli (Ummathur),Chilkunda, Gavadagere (Chikkadanahalli), Muthurayana Hosahalli, Doddekoppalu, Aswal, Shantipura and Shirenahalli.

Stating that Rs. 6,35,300 unaccounted cash was seized from vehicles so far, out of which Rs.4 lakh has been returned to the owners upon production of supporting documents, Abhiram G.Sankar said that unaccounted pamphlets, vessels, sarees, vehicles, tankers and other materials totally worth Rs.97.90 lakh have been seized so far and 40 cases have been registered for Poll Code violations. Dec.5, the date on which the bypoll will take place, has been declared a paid public holiday in Hunsur, he added.

SP C.B. Ryshyanth said that all security measures have been taken for the by-poll. The Police have carried out a flag march in sensitive areas in order to instil a sense of security among the voters, he said and added that four CISF (Central Industrial Security Force) teams will arrive at Hunsur in a couple of days as part of the security arrangements.

Lethal Attack on Tanveer Sait

Five more arrested

Tanveer Sait

Mysuru, Nov.23 (RK&DM)- The Special Investigation Team (SIT) probing the murderous assault on Narasimharaj MLA and former Minister Tanveer Sait, has arrested five more persons in connection with the case.

The arrested have been identified as Akram, Abid Pasha, Noor Khan, Mujib and Muzamil. The Police had arrested the alleged assaulter Farhan Pasha of Ghousianagar, when he attempted to flee from the spot in Bannimantap late night on Nov.17.

With the arrest of the five on Wednesday night, the number of arrests made in the case has reached six. All the five arrested have been remanded in judicial custody after Police interrogation.

However, Farhan Pasha is still in Police custody and the Police are interrogating him on the motive of the lethal assault and the possible involvement of others in the case, according to city Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna.

Abid Pasha, one among the five arrested on Wednesday, was involved in Kyatamaranahalli Raju murder case and was out on bail. Pasha is alleged to have met the alleged assaulter Farhan Pasha several times before the murderous attack on Tanveer Sait.

Meanwhile Police have confirmed that Farhan Pasha, who is part of a gang opposed to Sait, had made preparations to assault Tanveer Sait over ideological differences. Farhan was present when Tanveer Sait recently protested in front of MUDA office demanding permission to celebrate Tipu Jayanti at Bannimantap Parade Grounds and was constantly monitoring the movements of Tanveer. Also the gang is said to have made futile attempts to kill Sait when he took part in an event organised at Tipu memorial in Srirangapatna Police, sources said.

In another development pertaining to the investigation of the case, the SIT team headed by DCP M.Muthuraj is said to have sought the help of the Central Intelligence Bureau in order to unravel the whole plot behind the murderous assault. Also, a team of top intelligence officers headed by an SP is said to be camping in the city for providing forensic, scientific and technical assistance in the investigation of the case, the sources added.

Hunsur facing bypolls for fourth time

Devaraj Urs Chandraprabha Chikkamadu Vijayashankar GTD Vishwanath Manjunath Somashekar

Hunsur, Nov.23 (KK&DM)- Even as politicians are making a beeline to Hunsur to campaign for their party candidates for the Dec.5 bypolls, this strategic Assembly segment in Mysuru district is facing the bypolls for the fourth time in poll history.

The Assembly Constituency witnessed bypolls for the first time in 1972, when the then Hunsur MLA D. Kariappagowda quit the seat to make way for D. Devaraj Urs became the Chief Minister without being an MLA. Urs won the bypoll and the rest is history.

Years later, Devaraj Urs' daughter Chandraprabha Urs won on a Congress ticket in the 1989 Assembly polls. But Chandraprabha quit as MLA after she was elected to the Lok Sabha in 1991, thus paving the way for a bypoll, which was won by Chikkamadu of the Congress.

Thereafter in 1994, the BJP which was a fledgling party then in the State, created history by winning the seat in the Assembly polls, with the party candidate declared elected as MLA. But Vijayashankar quit the seat after he won the Lok Sabha polls in 1998. In the bypolls that ensued, G.T. Devegowda, who contested on a JD(S) ticket, won by a huge margin.

Now the Assembly segment is witnessing the bypolls for the fourth time after A.H. Vishwanath, who was elected on a JD(S) ticket in the 2018 Assembly polls quit, citing differences with the party leadership and the bickerings within the JD(S)-Congress coalition Government.

However, Vishwanath was disqualified by the then Assembly speaker Ramesh Kumar ahead of the trust vote moved by the then CM H.D. Kumaraswamy in July, 2019. Vishwanath is now contesting on a BJP ticket and is up against H.P. Manjunath of the Congress, Devaralli Somashekar of JD(S) and a few other Independents.

Karnataka by-polls: 165 candidates in fray

Bengaluru, Nov. 23 (UNI) - A total of 165 candidates, including 9 women, are in the fray for Dec. 5 by-election to the 15 Karnataka Legislative Assembly seats.

According to the State Election Commission, 53 candidates, of the total 218 nominations found in order after scrutiny on Nov. 21, withdrew their papers on the last day for withdrawal.

K.R. Pet and Yellapur Constituencies have the least number of seven candidates each in the fray while highest number of 19 candidates each are in the fray in Shivajinagar Assembly constituency with Hosakote having 17 candidates for the by-poll. Voters in Shivajinagar and Hoskote will have two ballot units as the number of candidates exceeds 15.

Meanwhile, Vijayanagara and K.R. Puram has 13 candidates each, Yeshwanthpur and Mahalakshmi Layout 12 candidates each, Gokak 11 candidates, Hunsur 10 candidates, Athani 8 candidates, Kagwad, Chikkaballapura and Ranebennur have 9 candidates each.

37.77 lakh voters to cast their franchise: As many as 37.77 lakh voters, including 18.52 lakh women, will be exercising their franchise in the by-polls. Chief Electoral Officer Sanjiv Kumar, addressing the mediapersons, said that the voters list was updated till the last date for submission of nominations (Nov. 17), and that the number is "very large" for a bypoll.

The eligible voters included 20,818 persons with disabilities and 414 of the third gender. First time voters in the age group of 18 and 19 constitute 79,714.

Yellapur, with 1.72 lakh voters, has the least number of electorate for a Constituency and KR Puram, with 4.87 lakh voters, has the highest voters among the Constituencies going for bypolls.

In all, 4,185 polling booths will be set up, of which 20 per cent has been mapped as critical booths. While there will be 12 booths manned by persons with disabilities, 34 Sakhi booths to be manned by women will be established. Three have been declared as tribal booths.

Mysuru-Kochi flight halted till March 2020

As per norms, all airports should re-carpet their runways once in 10 years. The commercial operations at Cochin Airport started in 1999 and the runway underwent its first re-carpeting of the 3,400-metre long and 60-metre wide runway in 2009.

The entire re-carpeting work, which includes re-tarring, maintenance and overhauling of the entire stretch of the runway as well as the taxi-way, will cost Rs. 151 crore. Re-carpeting will considerably improve the operational efficiency and aerodrome safety, especially during low visibility and adverse weather conditions.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Mysore Airport Director R. Manjunath said that the suspension of Kochi service will be in place till the work at Cochin Airport is completed.

The Kochi flight was operated from Mysuru on all seven days. On Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the flight used to take off from Kochi at 10.25 am and arrive in Mysuru at 11.45 am. On Tuesdays, the flight used to leave Kochi at 12.10 pm and land in Mysuru at 1.40 pm. The flight was quite popular and the regular occupancy rate was recorded at 75 to 80 percent.

Manjunath said that instead of Kochi, the Air Alliance was looking at the possibility of operating flights to the newly-inaugurated Kalaburagi Airport or Mysuru-Bengaluru-Kolhapur sector. "The Airlines is looking into the possibility to help businessmen travelling to Bengaluru, Belagavi and Uttara Kannada to places Ankola, Tirupati and Belagavi," he said. The new route would be known either by this weekend or early next week, he added.

Manjunath said that there is less possibility of any airlines operating flights to spiritual destination of Shirdi. "Many regular flights to Shirdi from Bengaluru get cancelled due to inclement weather and in such case, it is a distance possibility that any operator will agree to operate from Mysuru to Shirdi," he rued.

BJP-NCP Govt. sworn-in

President's Rule was revoked at 5.47 am to facilitate the sudden oath ceremony. According to a Home Ministry notification, President Ram Nath Kovind issued the proclamation for revocation of the central rule early this morning.

Even as speculation mounted on whether this was done with the blessings of the senior Pawar, he tweeted that the nephew had acted on his own. "Ajit Pawar's decision to support the BJP to form the Maharashtra Government is his personal decision and not that of the Nationalist Congress Party (NCP). We place on record that we do not support or endorse this decision of his," Sharad Pawar said.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi congratulated Devendra Fadnavis and Ajit Pawar. "I am confident they will work diligently for the bright future of Maharashtra," PM Modi said. The BJP won 105 seats in the 288-member Assembly followed by Shiv Sena 56, NCP 54 and Congress 44.

Reacting to NCP leader Ajit Pawar joining hands with BJP, Shiv Sena leader Sanjay Raut said, "Ajit Pawar was in the meeting yesterday. Initially he seemed fine...he was participating in the talks till around 9 pm. But then he suddenly left saying he has a meeting with a lawyer. That is when our suspicion grew because even during the meeting, he wasn't making eye contact and his body language was strange. His phone was switched off. Now we know which lawyer he went to. He has backstabbed the people of Maharashtra."

Sanjay Raut said, "Shiv Sena and Sharad Pawar have got nothing to do with this. Sharad Pawar had no information. Ajit Pawar's place is inside Arthur Road Jail and now he will be Deputy CM. What happens in dead of night is evil."

Senior Congress leader Ahmed Patel tweeted saying, "Illegal and evil manoeuvres take place in the secrecy of midnight. Such was the shame that they had to do the swearing-in hiding. These illegitimate formations will self destruct."

BJP leader Girish Mahajan said, "We will prove our majority with support of over 170 MLAs. Ajit Pawar has given a letter to Governor about support of his MLAs and as he is legislative party leader of NCP, which means all NCP MLAs supported us."

BSY Govt. will topple after Dec.9: Siddu

K.R. Pet, Nov. 23- The BJP Government led by Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa (BSY) will fall after results of upcoming by-polls to 15 Assembly Constituencies are announced on Dec.9, said former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, here on Thursday last. He also exuded confidence of donning the Chief Minister's chair in the near future.

The former Chief Minister was on a campaign trail in an open vehicle in K.R. Pet Assembly Constituency to seek votes for Congress candidate K.B. Chandregowda.

Addressing the gathering, Siddharamaiah took a dig at the State Government stating that CM Yediyurappa, who could not handle the flood situation in North Karnataka, had promised to release crores of rupees of fund for Constituencies of all disqualified MLAs.

Calling upon voters not to support 15 disqualified MLAs including K.C. Narayanagowda, who had defied people's verdict during 2018 Assembly polls, the former CM urged people to cast their votes for Congress candidate K.B. Chandregowda keeping in mind the earlier five-year stable Government given by the Congress party after a span of 40 years.

Britain meanwhile eased into the semis with an efficient 2-0 effort over Germany.

Marathoners block 10-km road in Srirangapatna, Palahalli

Organisers had not taken Police permission; Runners squat on road, pitch tents and set up temporary toilets causing inconvenience to public, farmers

By Vinay Karekura

Srirangapatna, Nov. 23- Nearly a thousand marathoners from a Bengaluru-based NGO blocked the roads surrounding Srirangapatna with hundreds of four-wheelers, SUVs and Tempo Travellers this morning causing severe inconvenience to regular commuters, farmers and school children.

Srirangapatna Police officials told Star of Mysore that the marathon organisers had not taken written permission from them which is mandatory for an event of this scale. However, inside sources said that the organisers had conveyed orally to the Police that they were organising the event. Even permission was not sought from Cauvery Neeravari Nigama Limited (CNNL) that manages the canals around Srirangapatna. This was confirmed by CNNL Assistant Executive Engineer Thimmegowda.

The marathon was organised by the NGO and over a thousand participants had come from Bengaluru and other places to Srirangapatna in the wee hours. Armed with banners, tents and other equipment, the event organisers asked the participants to park their vehicles on both sides of Palahalli-Kannur Road, Ranganathittu Bird Sanctuary Road that touches Balamuri and other smaller roads connecting villages in the surroundings. In all, over 10 kilometres of roads were blocked.

While parking on both sides of the road inconvenienced other regular vehicles that had to carefully manoeuvre on the already narrow road, at some stretches, it became impossible for two cars to pass simultaneously from opposite sides. The organisers had pitched in many temporary toilets and had set up water and refreshment counters all along the roads, causing further trouble.

After their marathon, runners squatted on the road and some even stretched their bodies on the road leaving no space for other vehicles to pass. They had to continuously honk to clear the roads. Hundreds of farmers take out their vehicles and bullock carts in the morning to work in their fields as this is agricultural season. Transporting goods from one place to another became a difficult task for them.

The event organisers had even pitched tents on some mud roads near the Chikkadevaraya Canal while participants cooled off taking bath inside the canal. Villagers said that swimming in the canal is dangerous as the water released from the Krishna Raja Sagar Dam will be in full force.

Health check-up for Palace elephants

Mysuru, Nov. 23 (MTY&US)- Going by the High Court order to the Forest Department to submit a detailed report to the Government on the health condition of tamed elephants housed in various camps in the State, Forest officials and Veterinarians conducted a health check-up of the six elephants housed at Mysore Palace yesterday.

The health check-up was done going by the set guidelines which also focussed on food given to the elephants. The health report will be submitted to the Government at a meeting to be held in Bengaluru on Nov. 27.

In Mysuru Division, seven elephants are housed — six in Palace and one at Nanjangud Temple which has been shifted to Bengaluru for health reasons, said DCF Dr. K.C. Prashanth Kumar.

DCF Alexander, ACFs Krupanidhi, Parameshwarappa, RFO Devaraj, Veterinary Department Deputy Director Dr. Ajit, Veternarian Dr. D.N. Nagaraj and Palace Board In-charge of the elephants Mahendra were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Armistice

Pronunciation: AHR-muh-stus.

Meaning: Temporary stopping of open acts of warfare by agreement between the opponents : truce.

Origin: Armistice descends from Latin sistere, meaning "to come to a stand" or "to cause to stand or stop," combined with arma, meaning "weapons." An armistice, therefore, is literally a cessation of arms. Armistice Day is the name that was given to the holiday celebrated in the United States on November 11 before it was renamed Veterans Day by Congress in 1954. The original name refers to the agreement between the Allied Powers and Germany to end hostilities that constituted the First World War—an agreement designated to take effect on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month.

Example: The Korean War ended with an armistice signed in July of 1953, though a permanent peace accord was never reached.

THE ODD WORD

Abbozzo

Preliminary sketch.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A fly in the ointment

Meaning: A fly in the ointment is a small but irritating flaw that spoils the whole. In the 20th century the expression has also come to be used to describe a small flaw that comes to light to spoil an otherwise faultless plan.

Origin: These days ointments are chiefly for medicinal use - just the thing for rubbing on that nasty rash. In earlier times, ointments were more likely to be creams or oils with a cosmetic or ceremonial use. Literally, ointment was the substance one was anointed with. There is considerable anointing in Bible stories and it isn't surprising therefore that this phrase has a biblical origin. Ecclesiastes 10:1 (King James Version) has: "Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour." Our contemporary phrase 'the fly in the ointment' didn't appear until later. The earliest example I have found in print of that precise wording is in John Norris' A Practical Treatise Concerning Humility, 1707: 'Tis that dead fly in the ointment of the Apothecary.
